

CAPTAIN DES JARDIEN PRAISED BY CAMP

Captain Des Jardien of Chicago Maroons.

Walter Camp thinks much of Des Jardien, the center of the Maroon eleven. Here's what he says of Des Jardien: "He is the best center in the country—steady, reliable, absolutely dependable for his share of line work on attack, and a power on defense."

Coach Stagg seems more fortunate than his brethren in the matter of varsity and sophomore material on hand. The presence of Captain Des Jardien, one of the few westerners honored with an all-American berth in recent years, on the field of six candidates for end, several for quarter, and so on, indicates that the director will have the pleasing task of reducing the squad rather than rounding one up.

HAILED AS A COMING CHAMP

Sixteen-Year-Old Wizard of Manson, Iowa, Impresses New Yorkers With His Great Skill.

For the first time since "Willie" Hoppe cued his way to the premier position in the backline billiard world it seems the defense his masterful play has proved will be pierced. His crown is in jeopardy. When the storm cloud gathering on the horizon is minutely studied it assumes the form of Welker Cochran, the sixteen-year-old youth of Manson, Ia., who, in his practice matches in New York, has shown such impressive form that critics are agreed he will ere long climb to a position among the professional players where he will be hailed as champion or the next thing to it.

The arrangements which both Hoppe and Cochran have made for the coming season make it impossible that they will meet in a championship tilt until late next spring, if at all during the season.

Welker Cochran.

ing the season. Yet a titular meeting between the pair is but a matter of time, and the longer it is deferred, the brighter will be the prospects of the erstwhile newsboy.

A match between Hoppe and Cochran would afford the best billiards that could be seen. Both are masters. Cochran's stroke is similar to that of Frank Ives in every detail, and every billiardist knows what that means.

The prevailing opinion is that Cochran will strip Hoppe of his laurels when they do get together. Cochran, like the present champion, is a consistent player, fortified with an ideal temperament. As a match player he is second to none, with the possible exception of the champion himself.

A NURSE TAKES DOCTOR'S ADVICE

And is Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Euphemia, Ohio.—"Because of total ignorance of how to care for myself when verging into womanhood, and from taking cold when going to school, I suffered from a displacement, and each month I had severe pains and nausea which always meant a lay-off from work for two to four days from the time I was 16 years old.

"I went to Kansas to live with my sister and while there a doctor told me of the Pinkham remedies but I did not use them then as my faith in patent medicines was limited. After my sister died I came home to Ohio to live and that has been my home for the last 18 years.

"The Change of Life came when I was 47 years old and about this time I saw my physical condition plainly described in one of your advertisements. Then I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot tell you or any one the relief it gave me in the first three months. I put me right where I need not lay off every month and during the last 18 years I have not paid out two dollars to a doctor, and have been blessed with excellent health for a woman of my age and I can thank Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it.

"Since the Change of Life is over I have been a maternity nurse and being wholly self-supporting I cannot overestimate the value of good health. I have now earned a comfortable little home just by sewing and nursing. I have recommended the Compound to many with good results, as it is excellent to take before and after childbirth."—Miss EVELYN ADELIA STEWART, Euphemia, Ohio.

NOVEL IDEA IN WILL MAKING

French Farmer Had Little Money to Leave, but at Least He Could Show His Good Will.

Two New York business men were one day discussing the purchase by one of them of a certain mercantile concern with which, the buyer explained, had come the "good will."

"I hope this 'good will,'" said the friend, "is greater than that of the old French farmer."

"Here it is: The farmer was dying, and he sent for the notary to make out the will. Propped up in bed, he dictated:

"To Jean Marcel, our superb coiffeur, 10,000 francs.

"I bequeath 15,000 francs to the fearless Alphonse Bayard, that he may continue his valuable aeronautical experiments.

"To Pierre Deschamps, chemist, 10,000 francs as a mark of affection.

"To my physician, Monsieur Lelaire, 15,000 francs.

"To our eloquent pastor, 25,000 francs, to continue the restoration of—"

"But, my dear sir," interrupted the notary, "I don't believe you have all that money to leave."

"I know very well I haven't," said the farmer, calmly, "but I want to show them my good will."—Youth's Companion.

New Conundrum.

Here is a conundrum which your great-grandfathers asked each other when they were little boys:

"How many legs has a dog if you call his tail a leg?"

"Five!" shouted the little great-granddaddy of Mr. A.

"Wrong," corrected the diminutive great-granddaddy of Mr. B. "Because calling his tail a leg doesn't make it a leg."

I am reminded of this venerable brain twister of youth by the following lines in the Clayton anti-business bill.

"The District of Columbia shall be deemed a state within the meaning of this law."

So I shall modernize that ancient query by propounding the following: "How many states in the United States if you call the District of Columbia a state?"—Girard, in Philadelphia Ledger.

Cottages.

"Cottage accommodation," in the sense in which Mr. Runchiman's bill deals with it, is a phrase that would hardly be understood in the United States. Professors Greenough and Kittredge of Harvard, in their book on the ways of English words, point out that "cottage," in the strict sense of a laborer's dwelling, has never been adopted into popular American use, because America has never really had the thing. The word over there has always had literary and sentimental associations, and finally has come to be used for the most magnificent summer residences. This has gone much farther than the use of the word in England to mean a villa. In America a "cottage" definitely signifies a person who is above staying at a boarding house or hotel and has his own summer home.—London Chronicle.

Anecdotes.

Speaking of humorists brings us to the fact that no man living can look quite so solemn when producing humor as Irvin S. Cobb, the well known comedian to the Saturday Evening Post. When Cobb was on the staff of one of the big New York newspapers he did various news assignments, some of them mighty serious and others that gave him a chance for comedy. It was a standing joke about the office that anybody could look at Cobb as he bent over his typewriter and tell which kind of yarn he was writing. If his face was all wrinkled up with solemnity like a bloodhound's, with a sad look about the eyes such as one rarely sees except in an undertaker's hostler, Cobb was preparing something that would make hosts of people laugh.

CALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK, UGH! IT'S MERCURY AND SALIVATES

Straighten Up! Don't Lose a Day's Work! Clean Your Sluggish Liver and Bowels With "Dodson's Liver Tone."

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. Take a dose of the vile, dangerous drug to-night and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you feel sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store or dealer and get a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful tonight and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it cannot sallow or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

ERUPTION ON BABY'S FACE

Duke, N. C.—"When my baby was two weeks old, behind his ears turned red and caused an irritation and from rubbing it became raw and stayed moistened all the time. At times it would get so bad as to bleed. He was fretful. At the time he was eight months old he was in a bad condition with sores behind his ears and on his face.

"Nothing seemed to do any good at all till I got Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I at once commenced to wash his ears and face three or four times during the day with the Cuticura Soap, dried them with a soft cloth, then applied the Cuticura Ointment. In ten days his ears and face were well and no scars were left." (Signed) Mrs. Lena Lee, Jan. 2, 1914.

His Jargon in Doubt.

"That your cart outside?" asked the chauffeur.

"Ay, it be," replied the village grocer.

The chauffeur gave a superior smile. "I wonder you fellows don't get tired," he said, "joggin' along in them old, ramshackle carts."

"What pleases one doesn't please 'nother,'" replied the grocer philosophically.

"Should rather say not!" exclaimed the chauffeur. "I s'pose you get used to it. But look at my car outside! I can drive that car over sixty an hour!"

"Which—dogs or chickens?" asked the grocer.

Nervous Emotional Dizzy Depressed

Mrs. Addie Cartwright of Cedar St., Cairo, Ill., writes Dr. R. V. Pierce as follows:

"I send 3 cents for your 'Common Sense Medical Advice' for my daughter who has recently married and I know the book will be of much value to her. I have read and used for 25 years the valuable treatments contained in the 'Medical Advice' and have taken many bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and have been restored to health each time I used it. It is a great remedy for women as a strength builder, fine for the nerves and general health."

The Cause Laid Bare

Tea and coffee drinkers often notice backache, headache, rheumatic pain, dizziness, drowsy, tired feelings, disturbed urination and other signs of kidney weakness. The constant use of narcotic or alcoholic drinks is very apt to irritate the kidneys, and weak kidneys need prompt help to avert all danger of dropsy, gravel or fatal Bright's disease. Avoid the use of stimulants, drink more water, get more rest, fresh air and exercise. To tone and strengthen the tired kidneys, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the most successful and highly recommended kidney remedy.

An Oklahoma Case

Mrs. C. A. Wilkinson, Pawnee, Okla., says: "I was all run down with kidney trouble. My housework was a burden. I felt so tired. I couldn't sweep the floor without stopping to rest. Since I used Doan's Kidney Pills my health has built up wonderfully and I can do my work without the least suffering. Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly a wonderful kidney medicine."
